

THE STAR WAIST

For Little Boys

The designer of waists for wee boys must know how to throw in an air of sturdy manliness despite the simple childishness of the whole thing.

The one who doesn't know how simply makes a fussy frock; the one who has mastered the art creates a fascinating little garment.

The "Star" waist is simple and possesses three cardinal points:—coolness, newness, and washableness.

We have a large variety of pretty patterns at the present time both white and colored with collars attached, that mothers are invited to see.

Price $1.00 each.

NO WONDERS ON THE MAUNA LOA

When the Mauna Loa approached her dock yesterday morning there was an expectant crowd waiting for her. As the steamer came up to the wharf the eyes of all were strained to see what new wonder might be hidden inside this fairy ship. Would it be some scientific specimen for the Bishop Museum, or "the greatest wonder of the world" for the Kaimuki Zoo? Had the famous shark returned to tow the island steamers into the havens of the Kona coast, and were the fishes still milking the cows in the pastures of Hawaii?

But the waiting throng was disappointed. The faces of those on board were as solemn as those of owls. Purser Conking walked down the gangplank as if in a trance, without even volunteering a word to the anxious representatives of the press. A wave of apprehension swept over the vast throng and the wildest rumors of disaster spread like wild fire. When the reporters got the purser into a corner he replied to their anxious questions, "Boys, it's all over. I am not going to give out another story." "Why?" gasped the stunned newspaper men, and the sorrowful purser replied, "I was called as a witness in a case the other day, and actually the opposing lawyer used the stories I have given you fellows to prove that I had a lame reputation for veracity." And now the newspaper men are all gunning for that lawyer who has destroyed the only reliable and unfailing source of news in the territory—except, perhaps, Hatter.

Raising Schooner.

Alex. Lyle, who bought the schooner Concord which sank at her moorings in Naval row, has a big force of men, with divers, at work raising the vessel. Stays have been made fast to her masts and to anchors so that the schooner is now resting upon an even keel. Divers are taking out her ballast. As soon as she is floated the Concord will go on the Marine Railway and have a new bottom put on.

MANY VESSELS DUE TO ARRIVE

People who were looking for excitement yesterday sought the Stock Exchange instead of the waterfront. Two deep sea vessels got away yesterday and there are several others ready to depart. Three of them will get away today. There is quite a fleet of vessels due from various ports but evidently some of them have struck calms or adverse winds although they may be expected at any moment. The vessels sailing yesterday were the bark W. B. Flint which got away at 10 a. m. for Eleese and Makaweli, Kauai, to discharge cargo and load sugar at the latter port for San Francisco. The barkentine Fullerton got away for San Francisco at 3:15 p. m. She discharged her load of 15,000 barrels of oil, valued at $21,000, in about twenty hours, loads of sugar, aggregating some 2,500 tons. Today the bark Santiago, and the barkentines Irmgard and Archer will leave for the coast metropolis with full loads of sugar, aggregating some 3,500 tons. As the bark R. P. Rithet made the passage down in twelve days the captains are hoping for speedy passages although some of the ships now out from San Francisco are not making such good time.

Among the vessels that may be expected to arrive at any time are the American bark Fooking Suey, 135 days out from New York; the U. S. A. T. Dix, thirty days from Manila; the British bark Melanoe and the American schooner Rosamond, each 61 days from Newcastle; the American ship Emily Reed 55, and the American barkentine Amazon 54 days from the same port, all with coal; the Chilean ship Othello 79 days from nitrate ports. The San Francisco fleet due includes bark Willcott, out 24 days; the bark Andrew Welch 18 days for this port and the ship Fort George 21 days for Kahului, bark Amy Turner 18 days for Hilo, ship Hawaiian Isles 18 days for Kaaunapali.

The transport Dix, according to the latest reports will not arrive until the first of February; she is bringing 2000 tons of coal for the army quartermaster. The Willcott is the vessel which reached San Diego, California, several months ago after a voyage of nearly a year from New York, during which she had several narrow escapes from shipwreck. The next mail steamer is the Korea, which is due from the Orient early tomorrow morning. Although she has considerable freight it is probable that she will get away for the coast the same day. Friday, the one boat that can be relied upon, the Alameda, will bring nine days' mail from the coast.

Shipping Notes.

The Irmgard sails this morning at 10 o'clock for San Francisco.

The Edward May arrived at Kahului Monday, 38 days out from Tacoma.

The bark Gerard C. Tobey will sail the last of the week for San Francisco with sugar.

The steamer Mauna Loa arrived yesterday morning from her regular run to Maui, Kona and Kau ports.

The steamer Rosecrans sailed from Hilo for San Francisco Saturday and the ship Falls of Clyde got away the same day.

The sailing of the Wilder liner Kinau was delayed for about a half an hour yesterday in order to allow Judge Dole to finish important court work before sailing for Hilo.

The Mauna Loa reports a heavy swell at Napoepoo. The wharf was awash so no coffee could be handled and the taro which was taken aboard was drenched. There was no sugar at Honouapoo.

The inspectors of hulls and boilers had an unexpected fire drill on the Mauna Loa yesterday noon. They complimented the men on the way they responded to the alarm.

The Mails.

Mails are due from the following points as follows:

Yokohama—Per Korea, Jan. 26.
Colonies—Per Moana, Feb. 2.
Victoria—Per Moana, Feb. 11.
San Francisco—Per Alameda, Jan. 27.

Mails will depart as follows:

Colonies—Per Sonoma, Feb. 2.
San Francisco—Per Korea, Jan. 27.
Yokohama—Per Manchuria, Feb. 2.
Victoria—Per Moana, Feb. 2.

LIVELY ROW ON INTER-ISLAND DOCK

There was a lively mix-up on the Inter-Island docks yesterday afternoon which resulted in the arrest of three prominent officers of Inter-Island steamers on charges of assault and battery sworn out by a Japanese laborer. There are rumors that another warrant will be sworn out this morning for the Japanese charging him with having been the aggressor in the row.

Purser J. F. Friel of the steamer W. G. Hall, Engineer A. L. Lane of the same boat and Purser W. Wright are the men who were arrested. According to the story told by the Japanese they jumped on him without provocation and beat him until he looked as if he had been through the siege of Port Arthur. In truth his appearance lent credence to the idea that he had been jumped on by somebody. A John Doe warrant was sworn out and the Japanese showed the officer the men. As Friel and Lane had to go out with their steamer last night they were at once released to appear Monday. Wright will appear in court this morning. The men allege that the Japanese picked the row, calling them all manner of vile names and it was stated last night that a warrant for his arrest would be sworn out. Just what did happen it will be up to Judge Whitney to decide this morning.
